

Middle School Volleyball Head Coach

Job Description

The Middle School Volleyball Coach is responsible to run a middle school team under the direction of the Varsity Head Coach. We are looking for someone that has leadership abilities and is willing to work with the philosophy of the volleyball program.

Reports to

- Varsity Girls' Head Coach
- Director of Athletics with input from Assistant Director of Athletics

Responsibilities

- Regular communication with the Varsity Head Coach, participating athletes and families
- Student Mentoring: spiritual development and athletic skill development
- Conduct organized, structured practices with practice plans
- Program Organization: roster, organize practice instruction, supervision of athletes, etc.
- Coaching Administration: pre- and post-season meetings with the Varsity Head Coach
- MIVCA Membership
- Recommend attendance of a professional development for self-improvement

Minimum Qualifications

- High School diploma
- Volleyball coaching experience
- Must be organized and able to work independently with professional attention to detail.
- Support the mission, philosophy, statement of faith, and core values of Oakland Christian School.
- Give testimony regarding your faith in Jesus Christ and be an active member of a Christian bible-based local Church.