

ASL (American Sign Language) Teacher

Oakland Christian School is seeking a teacher to launch our ASL program. We are looking for a teacher who can manage a classroom effectively, teach with excellence, and create an engaging and joy-filled learning environment in the classroom. Excellent planning, teamwork, and communication skills with parents, students, and peers, are essential skills.

Qualifications:

Valid Michigan teaching credentials in this subject area are required (or able to secure them immediately upon hire). Or, a teaching certification with an ASL endorsement including 30 hours of ASL coursework.

Additional signing certifications (ASLTA, etc.) are preferred but not required.

An established connection with the local deaf community is preferred but not required.

Must be a person of Christian faith

Classroom experience preferred but not required.

At OCS, you will have the opportunity to work in a non-denominational Christian setting at an exemplary school with a rich 50+ year history.

This position is part-time with the possibility of full time based on other part-time teacher openings within the Secondary School.

If you enjoy teaching motivated students in small class sizes within a warm and caring community of educators, we would like to meet you!

OUR MISSION:

Oakland Christian School is providing excellence in education in an environment which is supportive of Bible-believing, Christ-centered families and their churches, and to nurturing individuals to become caring, contributing members of the body of Christ and Society.

Oakland Christian School is located thirty miles northwest of Detroit, Michigan with a kindergarten through twelfth grade enrollment of 500+ students. OCS is accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International.
