

High School Bible Teacher

Position Profile

The High School Bible Teacher has a full teaching assignment. The teacher will work closely with students to prayerfully help students learn to be disciples of Christ. In addition, this position will be responsible for planning and coordinating the High School chapel program. The High School Bible Teacher will report to the Secondary Principal.

General Responsibilities

- Plan, prepare, and deliver lesson plans and instructional materials that facilitate active learning.
- Effectively manage classroom and discipline procedures to create a positive classroom environment.
- Regularly review curriculum
- Maintain regular and accurate attendance and grading records.
- Motivate and lead students to accept God's gift of salvation, and help them grow in their faith.
- Ensure the classroom reflects a professional and Christian environment.
- Have knowledge of curriculum, standards, and mission.
- Participate in Professional development through professional reading, college coursework, in-services, and Leadership workshops.

Administration

- Have the ability to accomplish goals and objectives assigned by school administrators.
- Understand supervision and how to lead in a positive manner.
- Maintain a physical presence with the students by attending weekly chapel.
- Participate in beginning-of-the-year staff orientation, daily devotionals, staff meetings, and parent/teacher conferences.

Personal Characteristics and Skills of Applicant

- Demonstrate personal traits of enthusiasm, integrity, flexibility, and punctuality.
- Develops and maintains good communication with students, parents, and peers.
- Is a Christian role model reflecting good moral conduct
- Growing in a personal relationship with Christ.

High School Bible Teacher

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in a related field
- Must demonstrate a successful career in teaching, spiritual formation, and event planning.
- Must be able to excel at developing collaborative relationships with all school groups.