

Dear Middle School Students and Parents:

It's that time of year again - SPIRIT WEEK! We are very excited about this year's festivities. Spirit Week is September 18 - Sept. 22. It is a very fun, very busy week that includes athletic events, spirit game time, and dress-up days. Each day of the week, we will be running a special assembly schedule so students can participate in activities at the end of each day.

MIDDLE SCHOOL (Grades 6-8)

Dress-Up:

Monday, 9/18 USA - Wear red, white, blue or patriotic attire

Tuesday, 9/19 Holiday - Dress as your favorite holiday

Wednesday, 9/20 Character - Dress up as your favorite character

Thursday, 9/21 Wild West vs West Coast - Cowboy or surfer

Friday, 9/22 Green and Gold - Show your Lancer pride with school colors

NO REAL OR IMAGINARY WEAPONS ARE PERMITTED AND NO POLITICAL STATEMENTS

NOTE: Clothing for the week should be modest, appropriate, and not offensive. Body paint is not permitted; however, face paint is acceptable. Students not participating in the dress-up days must be in uniform. Leggings and yoga pants are not permitted, nor is anything else excessively tight. Inflatable costumes are not permitted. Flip-flops or crocs are not permitted to be worn during spirit week.
