

Job Title: Director of Guidance

It's our 50th year and exciting things are happening! Are you a licensed Michigan school counselor who has a passion for working with great students and highly qualified licensed teachers and staff in a Christian setting? If so, we are looking for YOU!

We desire to expand the services we provide to our students and their families and are looking for a Director who is able to assess our current format and recommend a structure for the department. The Director of Guidance would coordinate efforts at Oakland Christian School for the delivery of a comprehensive developmental counseling and guidance program for all students and will focus on working with a team of qualified individuals that focus on assisting our students to reach their maximum potential. Our ideal candidate is capable of building relationships with current students while modeling Christian values that exemplify love and grace, individual uniqueness, and integrity.

Your position at Oakland Christian school is one that will:

1. Provide services for all students up to and including areas of college and career planning.
2. Support students throughout the school experience, providing entry-level social and emotional counseling, and directing students and parents towards off campus counseling assistance when necessary.
3. Assist administration in evaluating and improving school programs.
4. Plan and present programs designed primarily to prepare and train youth for gainful employment or entrepreneurship beyond high school.
5. Utilize your Masters Degree in Counseling, and experience as a Director, to successfully lead your department.

If this position excites you, we want you to apply now. Please contact our Director of Human Resources, Laura Morgan at lmorgan@oaklandchristian.com to learn more.
