AbundantlyMe 4Dimensional Coaching Services	Tara Ouellette	248-421-8536	AbundantlyMe4D@gmail.com	AbundantlyMe4D.com	Based on the promise in John 10:10, we are meant to live full, abundant lives. It's my passion to partner with others as they bravely claim that promise in one or more dimensions of their lives: body, mind, heart, soul. I am a certified personal development coach and have spent the past 20 years supporting individuals, small groups, and large audiences as they achieve their fullest potential. Is there a dimension of your life you know isn't functioning to its fullest? Are you living a successful life but know there's a dimension that is struggling? Body health, strong thought-life, career success, healthy relationships and knowing our soul's purpose anchored in Christian values all make up the 4 dimensions of abundant living (body, mind, heart, soul). I would be honored to powerfully serve as your coach as you bravely go from where you are now to where you desire to be within any dimension of your life. Or you may know someone you could refer to this transformational coaching service. Either way, I would love to serve anyone who's ready to take their life to the next level. You deserve to claim Jesus' promise of abundance. Don't hold off any longer! It's time to live abundantly!
